

The Department of Labor and Industries is hosting a Free Contractor Training Day Jan. 18 at the Dept. of Labor and Industries office in Tumwater for new and experienced business owners. The free event will offer more than 25 classes on subjects including safety, managing your claims to control your workers' compensation costs, public works contracting, business planning, risk management, marketing, and many other subjects business owners and organizations should be aware of in 2019.

Please visit Washington Labor and Industries to register.

Classes are located at 7273 Linderson Way SW Tumwater, WA 98501